Additional Support

When you purchase PE PPA cover from us, we can provide additional curriculum interventions or enrichment events for your school including literacy, numeracy, STEM and equality, diversity and inclusion workshops.

Literacy

Our football-themed literacy activities help to build confidence, develop pupils' language capabilities, and contextualise their learning. By engaging pupils through activities which include writing inspiring half-time team talks, match reports, or a poem about their favourite player, our sessions support pupils to practice their writing composition, speaking and listening, and creative language.

Numeracy

Our football-themed numeracy challenges bring maths into a real life context. For example: using football statistics, fantasy football budgets and the inner financial operations of a football stadium to explore the application of key numeracy skills. During our sessions pupils can practice their adding, subtracting, multiplying and dividing as well as doing mental calculations and solving problems using time, measurements or money.

PSHE

Our workshops cover key life skills topics that focus on exploring and developing personal wellbeing, aspirations for the future, equality and diversity, and personal lifestyle choices. Sessions are connected to the real world using the context of sport to enthuse pupils when tackling challenging topics such as resilience, self-esteem, and fair play.

STEM

Our Soccer STEM sessions use football and robotics to teach core science, technology, engineering, and maths skills. Using our unique Brighton & Hove Albion Sphero robots we show pupils how to code, think about movement, angles, problem-solving, teamwork and communication. These sessions support the development of financial literacy, critical analysis, digital literacy, and creativity.

Free Taster Session

We understand that when schools are looking for a specialist to come in, they might not want to commit to an organisation without seeing them teach first.

We can provide you with a free taster experience to see exactly what type of service we offer.

If you're interested in a taster session do contact us at: schools@bhafcfoundation.org.uk

What schools say about us:

“The difference in the pupils after a session with the Albion is amazing. They really look forward to it and get so excited when they know the Albion are coming in for their PE lesson. We're seeing better play and teamwork on and off the playground because of the values Albion bring to our PE lessons.”

Teacher, Breakwater Academy.
